New Dimension Games sells wholesale to retailers by self-distribution. Given that the small amount of distributors available for this industry are already overbooked and cannot serve us at this time, we are prepared to do our own distribution with retailers directly, for a 50% discount if paid in advance, or a standard 40% discount with 30-day billing. The Manufacturer Standard Retail Prices (MSRP) for our products are listed above. Shipping costs depend entirely on location and are available upon request. Shipping in the United States takes 4-7 business days for delivery. Retailers outside of the USA we will happily work with, though terms and costs will depend on the distance, location, and thus price of shipping to their respective areas.

We currently offer only our core rulebooks and sourcebooks in wholesale. Adventures are not currently available because we are self-publishing and thus it is not cost-efficient.

If you are interested in entering into any arrangement with us, please contact Matt and feel free to ask any and all questions—I will be more than happy to address any concerns you may have. I can be reached both by telephone at (253) 460-6704 or by email at newdimensiongameswholesale@earthlink.net.
